from the H. S. M. R. Co in section 23 of the Mysore Contract (Vide Dewan's letter no. 11-D dt/ 28. November 1900 to the Resident & the Dewan's memo dt/ 16. 8. 1893). There is nothing in that section precluding the Mysore Govt. from claiming a portion of the charges mentioned by the Comptroller. On the other hand its terms are wide enough to include such charges. In fact in the 1st bill (for the period from 12. 8. 1889, the date of the constitution of the Ry. police to 31. 12. 1894) the charges of clothing & accoutrements was included but not charges for supervision & pension (ongoing charges). All the subsequent bills ~~were based on~~ it is found that clothing charges have also been omitted from them. It is not known under what circumstances they came to be omitted. The Comptroller states that the Ry. Co contributes a portion of all these charges in sections of the Ry. in British India

3) The proportions supplied by the Comptroller are :-

Supervision charges	7½ p.c.
Clothing charges	Rs 17 per head
Pension charges	7½ p.c. on pay only of the force.

2. The authorization rolls of the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company show that Rs.10 per head is being paid for clothing on behalf of the Police force lent by the Madras Government and that pensionary charges are also borne. The claim of the Mysore Durbar therefore seems reasonable taking the example of that Government as a precedent.

The police employed on the Mysore State railway before cession of jurisdiction over it to the British Govt in March 1896 were regular Mysore police seconded on the Dt Police establishment and transferred for duty to railway. These were not lent to the railway Co. Their service was Mysore service and the Ry Co do not seem liable to pay any contribution towards their pensions. On their services having been transferred to the British in March 1896, it was decided That the Durbar and the British Govt should bear their pensions according to the rule of proportions (Vide Sta 423 of 1904-05 put up.).

2. The average cost of clothing issued to the Ry. Police which is not being recovered from the company, is included in the statement. On enquiry it is stated by the I.G. that clothing is being supplied out of the lump sum grant provided under the head 'Equipment & clothing' for the meerut Rly Police Force from the very beginning of the formation of the Ry. police and that the average cost has been included in the statement under reference since the Chief Auditor & Accountant, Madras & Southern Mahratta Ry. in his letter to the Resident has called for the clothing charges also. He solicits orders of Govt. as to whether such charges may be included in the last quarterly statement of the cost of the force recoverable from the Co., and to Govt.

3. It may be mentioned here that in addition to clothing charges, charges on account of superannuation and contribution towards pension are being shared by the Co in other sections of the Ry. police. The circumstances under which the share of these charges is not being received from the Co. are not known. It is for the Govt to decide whether a percentage of the cost of the establishment shared by the Co. should be treated as representing supervision charges & secretariat charges recovered from the Co.

4. As the force is kept entirely for the maintenance of law & order in the railways, the cost of pension to the force should also be shared jointly by the Co. & the Govt. In other sections of the railway police, contribution towards pension has been fixed at 7½ per cent on pay only of the force.

5. As regards charges on account of clothing, I beg to state that it would be convenient to fix the cost per head per annum. The figures furnished in the statement work up to about Rs 17 as noted below:-

	No	Total annual cost	Average per head.
Bangalore Municipal.	57 men	950	16.66
Bowringpet-Shimoga	23 men	388	16.85
